

LogiVox Enterprise WMS

Intelligent Supply Chain Execution

□ The Future of High-Volume Warehousing

LogiVox is a modern, AI-driven Warehouse Management System designed for 3PLs, E-Commerce fulfillment centers, and high-volume distribution networks. Unlike legacy systems that require months to deploy, LogiVox launches your operations in 60-90 days with a fully cloud-native, API-first architecture.

□ Core Product Offerings

- 1. 3PL & Multi-Tenant Billing Operate multiple clients under the same roof with absolute data separation. Define individualized workflows, custom pick/pack profiles, and automate complex storage and transactional billing effortlessly.
 - 2. Intelligent Wave & Inventory Management Leverage dynamic wave routing to maximize order picking density. Utilize advanced inventory control including proactive cycle counting, optimized putaways, and dynamic bin sizing.
 - 3. Robotics & IoT Orchestration Connect directly with AMRs, AS/RS, sorters, and conveyor networks. LogiVox speaks directly to your automated hardware—no middleware required.
 - 4. Advanced Yard Management Gain full visibility over your trailers and dock doors. Optimize scheduling, reduce detention fees, and synchronize inbound flow directly to outbound put-walls.
